Dear Colleagues,

Are your students looking sluggish? And how about you?

If so, take a look at this article "How Exercise Could Help You Learn a New Language" (and maybe more…). Get on a bike and learn!

The First Mellon Seminar of the semester is TODAY
Monday, 12 February, 5-6:30 in C-104
Teaching with the Shoah archive: creative, compassionate, pedagogically rich ways to look closely, deepen research and create a community of witness in the classroom, facilitated by Marie Regan.

See the e-mail from Brenda Torney sent earlier today for more information.

TLC lunches: Wed. 12:15-1:15 (G-102) – Bring your lunch

21 February
Tomer Libal, professor of Computer Science, will lead a discussion on AUP LMS (Learning Management Systems, e.g. Blackboard, MS Teams) and systems for networking (e.g. Slack). Bring your mobile phones to experiment!

14 March (NOTE – this lunch has been changed to 21 March)

21 March The Teaching You Do Outside of Class: Improving Advising at AUP, facilitated by Linda Martz
Interested in sharing your opinions on what DOESN'T work in advising here at AUP, and in coming up with ways to fix the process? This TLC lunch will be dedicated to brainstorming improvements for how to improve this very special part of teaching, the teaching we do outside of class.

28 March Diversity in the Classroom, facilitated by Michelle Kuo

11 April Topic TBA

25 April Topic TBA

Second Mellon Seminar of the semester:

Date TBD

Active/experiential learning projects, facilitated by Russell Williams and Hannah Westley
