

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF PARIS

www.aup.edu

Press Release

Illustration credit: Philip Brooker

Friday March 25th 2011

The American University of Paris
organizes two events in Paris (7th)
open to the public to raise funds for Japan
Please circulate this information widely:
we need a strong turnout!

The American University of Paris students, faculty, staff members and alumni will be coming together to raise funds for the victims of the Japan disaster. All profits raised through these two events will go to the Japanese Red Cross Society, who will distribute the funds directly to those in need.

● 6:00PM - 8:30PM Miyayama Hiroaki New Japanese Tradition - Vernissage

American University of Paris Fine Arts Gallery

6 rue Colonel Combes, 75007 Paris
click here for directions

Find out more about this exhibition

● 7:00PM - 10:00PM join the AUP community and share a Japanese tea or a drink

Amex Café

31 avenue, Bosquet 75007 Paris
click here for directions

If you are not available but would like to donate directly to the Japanese Red Cross Society please click here.

*“It is so inspiring to see the AUP community come together in such a way to help a nation in need!
In times of great tragedy we all need to come together and help one another, and I am proud to be a part of a community that feels that way!” Elizabeth R. AUP student*

Merci - thank you - ありがとう

Contact press AUP : Marie-Laure Valleron Public Relation Officer mvalleron@aup.edu