

Dear all,

As there is no official conference hotel, I am supplying you with a list of hotels in the 7ème arrondissement of Paris where AUP is located. Please consult the maps which will help orient you.

Map of our area: AUP is located in the center of the triangular area surrounded by Hotel des Invalides, Ecole Militaire, and the Tour Eiffel. All the hotels listed below are located in that space and are within a 5-minute walk of our campus buildings.

We begin with Priceline and Eurocheap lists of the best deals in the neighborhood. Following then is a complete listing of ALL hotels in our area so that you can study their websites if you choose (all pages are in English).

When you do find a hotel that appeals to you, I suggest you then google booking.com with the name of the hotel: I have done this with the *Hotel du Cadran, just around the corner from campus.

Just type in the dates you arrive and depart and immediately the site will tell you what is available and the prices. If, for example, 3 or 4 of you want to room together, the Cadran has a family room (2 separate rooms that sleep 4) for the price of 2750euros. That's about 690 euros per person, or less than 100 euros per night for 7 nights. As you see only two rooms are left.

Here is another site from booking.com that lists hotels in the surrounding vicinity, some a metro ride from AUP. Just click on the hotel and you will see what is available on the dates I typed in (Sunday to Sunday).

My advice: if you are planning to come, reserve as quickly as you can.
