

Policy Number: AA028EN
Last Review: 17 Aug 2021

1. PURPOSE

In order to facilitate the payment of student tuition fees, AUP makes available a Semester Payment Plan and an Installment Payment Plan for graduate students. This policy explains the details of both options. See also AA030EN – Penalties for Late Payments.

2. WHO IS AFFECTED BY THIS POLICY

Graduate students

3. POLICY STATEMENT

Full-time graduate students may choose to pay their tuition by following either the Semester Payment Plan or the Installment Payment Plan.

- Student who choose the Semester Payment Plan must pay their tuition in full prior to the start of each semester. Fall semester tuition is due on July 15, spring semester tuition is due on December 15, and summer tuition is due on April 30. Students who do not make these payments by the due date are charged a 250€ late fee. (Note that all citizens of the U.S. who borrow federal funds are automatically on the semester payment plan.)
- The Installment Plan allows students to make four payments for either the fall or spring semester. Payments for the fall semester are due June 1, July 1, August 1 and September 1; payments for the spring semester are due October 1, November 1, December 1 and January 1. Note that there is no installment option for summer and a service fee of 200€ is charged for each semester the Installment Plan is selected.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Office of Student Accounting Services manages tuition payments from graduate students. Graduate students must pay their tuition by the due dates.
