

MA in Global Communications: Revised Degree Structures (from Fall 2017)

Development Communications

The program requirements for the MA in Global Communications, Development Communications Track are as follows:

- Four core courses (16 credits)
- Four track elective courses (16 credits)
- Two open elective courses from all MA in Global Communications and selected Graduate School course offerings (8 credits)
- Internship or Thesis (8 credits)

Core (16 credits)

CM5001 Global Communications

CM5025 Communications and the Global Public Sphere OR PO5012 Civil Society

CM5053 Development Communications

CM5063 Sustainability Practicum OR CM5068 NGO Practicum

Track Electives (choose 4 = 16 credits)

CM/PO5003 Cultural Diversity and Globalization

CM5005 Identity Formation in a Transnational World

CM5020 Modules (if relevant to track)

CM5022 Place Branding

CM5028 Video Production

CM5062 Digital Writing Practicum

CM5065 Broadcast News Practicum

CM5067 Advertising Practicum

CM5070 Media, Gender and Globalization

CM5073 Media and Society in the Middle East and North Africa

CM5077 Communications and the Global City

CM/PO5079 Media, Governance & Diversity

CM5080 Visual Design Practicum

CM/PO5081 Collaborative Methods in Conflict Resolution

Open Electives (choose 2 = 8 credits)

Chosen from all other MAGC offerings and selected Graduate School offerings.

Thesis or Internship (8 credits)