Susan Ossman

“When the field makes the anthropologist:
some thoughts on field design and subject formation.”

Susan Ossman is an anthropologist and an artist who has made her home in France, Morocco, the UK and the US. She is the author of books on globalization, migration, media and aesthetics. Susan has developed cross-disciplinary collaborative art projects that include On the Line, Lifeworks and the Moving Matters Traveling Workshop. Her paintings, installations and multi-media work developed in the course of these migrations have been exhibited in Europe and the US. She is Professor of Anthropology and Global Studies at University of California, Riverside.
