

SUZANNE (CUSHING) BODEVIN

(Swiss/American)

7 rue Benjamin Godard
75116 Paris
France
E-mail : sbodevin@hotmail.com

EDUCATION

THE FLETCHER SCHOOL, Tufts University

Medford, MA

Doctoral thesis focusing on macroeconomic policymaking in Switzerland and Sweden, degree awarded 1996. The model selected also served as a framework for analyzing the political economy debate surrounding EMU membership. Swedish Institute Scholarship for doctoral research (1993-94).

Celia M. Howard Scholarship for the Fletcher School masters program in international relations. Masters degree awarded in May 1987. Areas of specialization: international finance, monetary economics and trade.

INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Geneva, Switzerland

Rotary International Scholarship (1985-86) for study in international economics and politics. Completed trading commodities internship, CARGILL INVESTOR SERVICES, Geneva, and participated in the AIESEC Seminar on Futures and Options. (Summer 1986)

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Notre Dame, Indiana

Phi Beta Kappa, Magna Cum Laude 1984 graduate, majoring in economics and French. Study abroad program 1981-82 in Angers, France.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF PARIS

Paris, France

Assistant professor, International Business Department (2007-). Course responsibilities: Corporate Finance, International Financial Markets, Multinational Business Finance, Principles of Finance and Money & Banking.

- Served as moderator at the TBLI Conferences (Triple Bottom Line Investment) in London (Nov. 2011), Zurich (Nov. 2012) and Oslo (Sept. 2014); established a new sustainability study trip (Scandinavia 2012, 2014, and 2016).
- Created team projects drawing upon the personal experiences of an internationally diverse student body.
- Fostered hands-on learning through the use of real-time financial tools such as Reuters.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA IRVINE (Summer Program)

Glion, Switzerland

Lecturer in international finance during the UCI summer program in Glion. (Summers 2007, and 2008)

ECOLE SUPERIEURE DE COMMERCE EXTERIEUR

Paris, France

During the 2006 fall term, lectured on corporate finance and financial markets (fourth year course including Erasmus exchange students).

GLION INSTITUTE OF HIGHER EDUCATIONBulle, Switzerland

Professor of Finance, at both undergraduate and MBA level corporate finance courses, supervised undergraduate dissertations. (2002-05)

ANGLO-AMERICAN COLLEGEPrague, CZ

- Designed and taught undergraduate courses in international economics/political economy and international finance. (1996-97; 1999-2000)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCETHE WORLD BANK*Washington, D.C.

Consultant, Latin America Technical Department, Trade, Finance and Industry Division, (1990-91)

- Assisted in preparing two studies: « Petrochemical Industry in Mexico » and « Trade Reforms in Latin America During the 1980s ».
- Created a spreadsheet program to calculate modifications in Ecuador's effective rate of protection during this nation's tariff reform. Project involved two-week field work in Quito.
- Intensive Spanish language training and macro-economic seminar series.

PROCTER & GAMBLEGeneva, Switzerland

Financial Analyst, Mid East and Africa Group (July 1987-July 1989)

Performed profitability analyses of projected investments (i.e. new production facilities) in the Mid East and Africa.

- Assessed the impact of exchange rate movements on product costs, sales volumes, and the translation of subsidiaries' profits into U.S. dollars.
- Constructed profit monitoring programs for the African licensee operations.
- Formulated and controlled the fiscal year budget for a series of markets.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATIONWashington, D.C.

Drafted competitive assessment of the US process controls industry. (Summer 1985)

FEDERAL GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPWashington, D.C.

Completed a research project on multilateral development banks. (Summer 1984)

OFFICE OF SENATOR CHARLES H. PERCYWashington, D.C.

Assisted the legislative aid in charge of transportation and special projects by writing an issue paper concerning the establishment of a new historical park, constituents, researching legal issues related to the construction of a new state highway, and responding to requests from constituents. (Summer 1983)

PERSONAL ENDEAVORS

Board of Trustees, the International School of Paris (September 2014 -)

Ecole du Louvre (auditors section, 2008-10): attended the second and third year general art history seminars (Middle Ages until present) and topical seminars in Paris museums: the Renaissance, 18th – 19th century painting and sculpture, 20th century art, Asian Art, and Egyptian Dynasties.

