

Center for Critical
Democracy Studies

WEDNESDAY
OCTOBER 11

17h00 – 19h00

The Center for Critical Democracy Studies presents

Solidarity in Polarized Times:

Isabelle Aubert and Rainer Forst

On October 11th, the Center for Critical Democracy Studies will host Professors Isabelle Aubert (Panthéon-Sorbonne) and Rainer Forst (Goethe-Universität) for “Solidarity in Polarized Times,” an event which will bring both thinkers together for a discussion of notions of solidarity in their recent philosophical work. Professor Aubert will give a presentation titled “Solidarity and Critical Reason,” and Professor Forst’s presentation will be titled “Solidarity: Concept and Conceptions.” The discussion will be moderated by AUP Professor Julian Culp.

David T. McGovern Grand Salon (C-104) | 6, rue du
Colonel Combes 75007 Paris

To join via Zoom, email jculp@aup.edu for details.

Persons who are not AUP members should register via aup.edu/solidarity-polarized-times

