

Curious. Brave. Independent.

AUP launches vibrant, confident individuals with the curiosity to explore, passion to engage, and capability to lead. The world needs more independent thinkers, and here, you have the opportunity to pursue your passions with creativity and purpose. You'll step out of your comfort zone, learn to question everything, and foster the mindset and skills needed to succeed in an exciting, international career.

At AUP, Ideas are Born, not Recited.

For over 60 years, The American University of Paris has offered students representing more than 100 nationalities a life-changing university experience that crosses disciplines, cultures and borders. As a renowned international center for cross-cultural and interdisciplinary teaching and learning, AUP offers a Paris-based, globally minded and transformative education that places you at the center of your own learning. Students come to make their own educational experience and find their own path, because we believe that accelerating and enriching the development of individuals such as you leads to collective growth and progress. If that sounds inspiring to you, we want to meet you.

How to Apply

Our application process is simple and straightforward: just submit your information, upload your supporting documents, and we'll send you an admission decision. If you are currently completing your high school education, you'll apply to AUP as a first-year student. If you have 12 or more college credits, you'll apply as a transfer student. We review completed applications in multiple rounds throughout the year, though you're encouraged to apply early as priority for admission and scholarships is awarded in earlier rounds.

To apply, please submit the following materials:

- Completed online application form at aup.edu/apply
- Personal statement
- Supplemental essay
- Extracurricular and work experience
- Transcripts for the last three years of school
- Two letters of recommendation
- English language test result if English is not your school's language of instruction
- €50 application fee or $50 if using the Common Application

We accept applications on a continuous basis throughout the year in alignment with the varying academic schedules of our international applicants.
