When a student registers online for a study trip, the cost of the trip is automatically shown on the student's account. See Student Accounting Services for details about the student account and related charges.

Payment for study trips is due as soon as the trip is officially confirmed via email by the Cultural Programs Office to registered students and no later than the end of the

Cancellation

IMPORTANT: The last day to cancel and remove the charge of the study trip from the student's account is the last day of DROP/ADD. A student who has not dropped the study trip in the online registration portal by the last day of DROP/ADD is registered and will be held responsible for the entire cost of the trip if the study trip is confirmed on the third week of the class by announcement email. For the Spring 2026 semester, this is

The registration window is open for study trips during the week of DROP/ADD. The last day of DROP/ADD constitutes the last official day of study trip registration. After DROP/ADD, students may contact the Cultural Program Office directly to register for a study trip, though availability is not guaranteed. If registration for a trip is full, the Cultural Program Office will provide an online link to the registration/ waitlist procedure.

third week of class. For the Spring 2026 semester, this is January 30, 2026. Student Accounting Services reserves the right to block transcripts and registration because of outstanding balances due to study trips.

Payment can be made online by credit card on my.aup.edu/payment/academic-trips.

IMPORTANT: All outstanding balances to the University result in blocked transcripts. There are no exceptions for Cultural Program activities and study trips.

midnight January 18, 2026.

If registered for a study trip after DROP/ADD, the student will be charged for the entirety of the trip even if they do not attend the trip or withdraw from a course with a study trip. Some exceptions may apply in extraordinary circumstances. The cancellation deadline is extended for eligible students pending their Coup de Pouce award notifications: see the Cultural Program Manager.

Cultural Excursions, Activities and Tickets

Sign-up for cultural excursions, activities, and tickets is done through the Cultural Program website. To sign up, the student must pay the full amount of the excursion or ticket on the corresponding page. Once payment is made, no cancellations or refunds are possible.

Priority for Participation

Students registered in corresponding course(s) of a study trip are given priority for participation on study trips. In the event of enrollment exceeding the number of spots prebooked, the Cultural Program Office team does their best to add extra spots to the trip. Please note, however, that sometimes this is not possible due to outside restraints (flights, hotels, etc.). In this case, students

A student may sell their ticket or seat to someone else, and the Cultural Program Office will do its best to help the student find a buyer; however, the financial transaction is solely the student's responsibility.

registered in the corresponding course(s) will be given priority and those who are dropped from the trip are not responsible for the cost of the trip. In the event of there not being enough spots for everyone from the course(s), the date and time of registration will be taken into consideration.

Other Participants

Individuals who are not current AUP students but who would like to participate in a study trip or activity must make a request directly to the Cultural Program Office no later than the study trip registration period of DROP/ADD. Cultural Program activity is the only way to guarantee an outside individual's participation in the study trip.

CP Policy information

Excused Absences

Students who are registered in a class corresponding to a study trip are excused by Academic Affairs from attending their other classes during the dates of the study trip if they are attending the trip. If the time of departure or arrival allows a student to attend class before leaving or after returning from a study trip, the student may be expected to do so and must be in contact with their professor to make sure this is clear for both the professor and the student. Students who are registered in a study trip but who are not registered in the corresponding class are NOT officially excused from their classes by Academic Affairs. Students are advised to contact their professors before registering for a trip to see if their professor can permit their absence. The Cultural Program cannot issue refunds for trips if a student decides to cancel after the DROP/ADD deadline because their professor cannot excuse their absence from class.

Accommodation, Transportation and Special Arrangement Requests

In most cases, students share accommodation in sets of twin, triple, and quad (or more in specific circumstances), depending on the establishment and trip budget. Students may submit special rooming requests by answering to the announcement email of the study trip confirmation. In most cases, transportation is reserved in advance by the Cultural Program Office in order to secure the best possible times according to the professor's schedule and obtain the best possible prices. Students wishing to arrange their own lodging or transportation, or any other specific requests must make this clear upon confirmation of the trip. To make special arrangements, student must contact the Cultural Program Office and submit the request in writing via email. The Cultural Program Office will do its best to accommodate special requests. Special arrangements require approval by the Cultural Program Manager and in certain cases, the accompanying professor. Please note that approval of special requests may not always be possible because of trip specific reservation or budget restraints. In all cases, students will be charged for group and professor-related fees. Any extra cost associated with a special arrangement is the responsibility of the student.

Carte de Séjour

Any student who registers for a cultural excursion or study trip that involves travel outside of France and who does not have the proper documents to travel at the date of the study trip, or who does not correctly fulfill the Carte de Séjour requirements by providing the necessary documents to the Student Immigration Services Office at the start of the semester and is, therefore, unable to travel, will be held responsible for the cost of the trip. No exceptions to this rule. See the Student Immigration Services Office if you are not sure that you have the proper documents to travel and notify the Cultural Program Office upon registration and at the latest by the announcement email of the study trip confirmation..

Visas

Students are responsible for knowing the visa requirements for their nationality for travel outside of France. If a visa is required, the Cultural Program Office can provide a letter that attests to the student participating on a university-sponsored tourism trip. This can be taken to the embassy or consulate of the relevant country as part of the application to obtain a visa. It is highly advised, once registered for a trip, to contact the relevant embassy or consulate as soon as possible to confirm the visa requirements and the cost and time needed to deliver the visa. Any student who is unable to participate in a trip because of failure to complete visa arrangements will be held responsible for the cost of the trip.

Conduct

Any behavior on Cultural Program study trips or excursions that violates either the University's Standards of Conduct or local legislation is prohibited and can result in disciplinary action. In extreme cases, students may be asked to leave the group and return home. See The American University of Paris Handbook for more information.

Explore Guadeloupe, a French Caribbean island that played a key role during the Age of Great Discoveries (1492–1600)—a place that witnessed the “destruction” of its indigenous people and the arrival of an enslaved African workforce. Known as l’île papillon (“Butterfly Island”) for its shape, Guadeloupe is far more complex than its postcard image suggests. Beyond beaches, waterfalls, mangroves, coves, and La Soufrière volcano, its landscapes, literature, and languages bear traces of colonial history. Explore pre-Columbian sites at Trois-Rivières and former sugarcane plantations and rum distilleries such as Bologne or Longuetau. Visit Les marches aux esclaves, the slave cemetery, and the Mémorial ACTe—sites inviting reflection on a past that continues to shape the island's vibrant cultural identity.

CM5022 Place Branding

Experience and explore Iceland's unique approach to promoting environmental and cultural sustainability. Strap on steel crampons for a lecture walk on a glacier, take a dip in the Sky Lagoon and scan the night skies for the Northern lights. Undertake field research in one of the most successfully promoted destinations in recent years, meeting with local brand managers, place influencers and cultural researchers. In this exceptional and highly unlikely 'tourist' destination of 'fire & ice,' conduct ethnographic and communications field research in the globalized-market-driven 'promotional culture' that is fast transforming "Iceland", especially as it impacts local customs, habits and traditions and Iceland's shared sense of place and nation. Come to understand how citizens, tourists, activists and academics 'communicate with nature' while interrogating the contemporary marketing, branding and 'public diplomacy' process of place & destination branding.

Exploring the Mediterranean as a crossroads of empire, religion, and trade, students will trace how Spanish imperial ambitions were built on networks of conquest, slavery, and colonial expansion that linked Europe, the Americas, and Africa. Experiencing the typical festivities of the Holy Week—with its parades, music, and traditional dress—in Seville and Granada, offers a vivid window into the diversity of Andalusian identity and the endurance of subaltern cultural forms. Visits to the Archivo de Indias, Alcázar, Alhambra, and Albaicín reveal how power, faith, and hybridity shaped both early modern and colonial worlds. Through walking tours, art visits, and creative writing projects, students engage firsthand with the layered legacies of empire, memory, and Mediterranean-Atlantic interconnectedness.

Fascinated by the Loire Valley's rich history, magnificent châteaux, and enduring cultural legacy? This study trip offers a unique opportunity to explore the evolution of French language, art, and identity in one of France's most celebrated regions – a microcosm of Renaissance power and culture. Students will explore the heart of Tours, once a center of humanist learning, and visit the château de Chenonceau, whose architecture and mythology inspired works from Rabelais's Gargantua (1535) to Disney's Cinderella (1950). At Clos Lucé, participants will encounter the inventive genius of Leonardo da Vinci, who lived there until his death in 1519. The journey concludes at the nearby Château d'Amboise, uncovering the intertwined histories of Joan of Arc, Machiavelli, François I, and Catherine de Medici.

Rouen has a small city center but with an enormous number of Gothic gems. There is the church of St. Maclou in the Flamboyant Gothic style, the old monastery of St. Ouen, and two unusual remnants of Gothic secular architecture. The Church of Joan of Arc is located right next to the exact site where she was burned at the stake, and contains beautiful examples of late medieval stained glass. The Musée des Beaux-Arts de Rouen features one of the richest collections in national museums outside of Paris, including impressionist paintings by Monet, Caillebotte, Sisley and Renoir as well as remarkable pieces by Velázquez and Caravaggio and Géricault.

It will be a wonderful experience towards the end of the course on Introduction to the History of Art I and Medieval Art & Architecture. The visit is designed as an introduction suited for all students, majoring in art history or not.
